

HORNCASTLE FREEMASONS

HORNCASTLE Freemasons have handed a £1,000 cheque over to Sue Wray of the Butterfly Hospice Trust. The Olive Union Lodge, who meet in Horncastle Masonic Hall, was thanked by Mrs Wray for its support.

This money will be going towards building a self-contained bungalow in the grounds to enable families to stay near their loved ones.

It is to be called 'The Lodge'.

The first phase of the hospice is due to open early in 2011.

Mike Carter, the lodge charity steward informed everyone that the New Lincolnshire Benevolent Fund had recently awarded grants totalling £60,900 to 111 non-masonic causes.

He went on to say that grants totalling more than £7 million were awarded from The Grand Charity in 2009.

Lincolnshire Freemasonry has entered into a five year project to raise £1.5 million in support of The Royal Masonic Trust for Girls and Boys, which will help orphaned or needy children with all aspects of their life.

Bob Luckham and Sue Wray of the Butterfly Hospice Trust and Mel Murfin, Master of Olive Union Lodge.

